

8 February 1973

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

SUBJECT : Historical Consultants

1. Attached per your request is a very preliminary list of individuals, primarily historians at academic institutions, who might be considered for membership on an advisory panel, to review CIA histories for relevance, accuracy, objectivity, and other prerequisites. These individuals are grouped according to the sources from which their names were derived. In general, they are historians who have specialized in US foreign relations or foreign regional history.

2. To date none of the individuals is witting of possible Agency interest in connection with the CIA Historical Program, although several now serve as Agency consultants for other purposes.

Bernard Drell
Chief, CIA Historical Staff

STATINTL

Attachment

History